

Senior Research Assistant (SRA)/Research Assistant I (RA I), Faculty of Law (Ref.: RF-2007/2008-186) (for 1 year, from March 1, 2008 or as soon as possible thereafter) Requirements: For SRA: excellent academic qualifications with post-graduate qualifications in Law, and substantial research experience in the field of comparative trusts. For RA I: good academic qualifications in Law, preferably with a higher degree. For both posts: fluency in written and spoken English; ability to work independently, conduct research in law and related fields, and draft research reports of high quality under time constraints are essential; specialised training or experience in equity and trusts; contract law; comparative law; and/or corporate financial law is highly desirable; proficiency in Putonghua, or a language other than English will also be an advantage. Duties: undertake research relating to trust regimes in common law and civil law jurisdictions; edit and prepare research reports and publications; translate primary materials; liaise with international experts; and carry out general administration work. The appointee will be the principal research assistant to Professor Lusina Ho and Ms. Rebecca Lee.

Applications in letter format, together with an up-to-date curriculum vitae, a letter explaining how the applicant meets the above requirements, and the names of two referees who have had recent experience of the applicant's work, should be sent directly to Professor Lusina Ho, Faculty of Law, The University of Hong Kong, Pokfulam Road, Hong Kong either by mail or by fax (2559 3543). For enquiries, please email Professor Lusina Ho (lusinaho@hku.hk) or Ms. Rebecca Lee (rebeccalee@hku.hk). Closes December 15, 2007. Candidates who are not contacted within 2 months of the date of their application submission may consider their applications unsuccessful.

The University is an equal opportunity employer