

Global Citizenship Public Lecture

The Obama Administration and U.S. Foreign Policy

The View from Washington

Dr Michael E Brown

Dean of the Elliott School of International Affairs
Professor of International Affairs and Political Science
The George Washington University

Abstract

U.S. President Barack Obama has announced 'a new era of engagement' in U.S. foreign policy. In this lecture, Dr Brown will identify elements of both continuity and change in U.S. foreign policy as well as the main components of the administration's engagement approach. He will also discuss several important policy challenges, including the conflict in Afghanistan and the prospects for international cooperation on issues such as nuclear arms control and climate change.
